

The Wine Room @ Jimmy Watsons

25 PAX . $550pw + 20% of ticket sales.

Step inside the "Wine Room" at Jimmy Watsons, a brand new venue for this years Fringe Festival, programmed and managed by the fine folk at the Motley Bauhaus.

Tucked away upstairs, this small, self-contained space is a delightful discovery, with its own dedicated bar just outside so your audience will have easy access to libations to enhance their experience.

The room itself exudes an old-world charm, proudly showcasing its heritage-listed status. Intimate and quaint, you'll be well looked after by the Motley Bauhaus team, who are just a stones throw away and will be managing the front of house and technical operations for you.

Step inside and embrace the fusion of history and creativity in this captivating space, as it becomes a canvas for artistic expression during this years Fringe Festival.

Tech specs

Lighting and sound technician
4 LED par cans
Quad pack - lighting control
Sound mixing desk
Speakers microphone

Stage Dimensions

3.25m wide x 1m deep

